Footnotes:

- <sup>1/</sup> The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- <sup>2/</sup> Elected officers whose salaries are less than $200 per month and judges are not required to file semi-annual statements if no contributions were received or expenditures made during the period.
- <sup>3/</sup> A controlled committee of a candidate may not make an independent expenditure to support or oppose another candidate.

- Contributions to state candidates and to committees that make contributions to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Refer to the contribution limits chart on the FPPC website. Contact local jurisdictions for information on local restrictions, if any.

As of the date of this publication (12/06), the FPPC Campaign Disclosure Manual for Local Candidates (Manual 2) contains the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- A candidate not being voted on during 2007 may be required to file additional statements if the candidate makes contributions totaling $10,000 or more to elected state officeholders during 2007 or makes contributions totaling $10,000 or more in connection with an election held in 2007. Contact the FPPC for specific requirements.
